Sisters in Crime

Ohio River Valley Chapter

Look What's Happening! Don't forget these dates for your calendar!

Times: Critiques 11:30am, Business Meeting 12:30pm, Program 1:00pm
Meetings are held the second Saturday every month

In 2008, when the Sisters in Crime visited the Louisville Police Department, Detective Mona Sullivan was working sex crimes. Her program was engaging and interesting. Now she is in a different position as a composite drawing artist and homicide detective. Since she has a lot to tell us on both subjects, we will split her program into two segments.

August 13, 2011

Homicide detective, Mona Sullivan will tempt our imaginations with real information about cold cases in the Louisville area.

September 10, 2011

Zev Buffman was to be the speaker for this program but he had to change to the November program. So September is to be announced later.

October 2011

Field trip! We will go on a ghost tour in old Louisville, which has been called "America's most haunted neighborhood." The date and time are not final, but the cost should run around $25 per person. Please email cstuck@bellsouth.net if you are interested so we can get a preliminary count of approximately how many will be going.

November 12, 2011

Veteran Broadway producer of over 40 Broadway shows earning 29 Tony Award nominations, plus multi-year producer at Universal Studios, NBC and CTV, Zev Buffman, will talk about his latest project, The International Mystery Festival. The festival is held in Owensboro and has hosted such notable authors as, Mary Higgins Clark, Sue Grafton, Josh Hutcherson, Anthony E. Zuiker (creator of C.S.I.), Rene Balcer (creator of Law and Order: Criminal Intent), and Bill Link (creator of Columbo and Murder she Wrote). The festival won awards at the MWA and the Edgar Awards.

December 10, 2011
